

Technology Applications Group
Job Description

POSITION TITLE: QUALITY CONTROL TECHNICIAN

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Quality Control Technician shall ensure that all necessary quality tests have been conducted on completed and in process work prior to shipping parts per customer requirements.

DUTIES:

- Ability to read and understand internal and customer supplied specifications used to determine product conformity.
- 100 visually check all aerospace work for conformance. Areas with light paint, runs, sags, or blistering shall be reason for rework.
- Conducts Holiday (pin hole testing) using a customer approved instrument.
- Conducts Tagnite coating and paint thickness measurements using a customer approved eddy current instrument.
- Ability to download the thickness readings using specialized software that has been provided with the instrument.
- Ability to conduct paint adhesion test using 250 type masking tape, or equivalent per customer specifications.
- Ability to conduct cure completion test using cheesecloth and acetone, or paint thinner per customer requirements.
- Is able to safely and efficiently package completed work as to protect it from shipping damage. The Quality Technician will work with office management (completing a shipper) to insure proper counts and purchase order information has been conveyed to them as needed.
- Able to operate fork truck.

REPORTS TO: Paint Department Manager.